

sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

sinclair intends to abuse this license to sway a presidential election by airing one-sided programming in the guise of "news".

I object strongly to their abuse of public trust and I object to the renewal of their licenses.

I would like to testify before the Commission on this matter.